Quarterly Newsletter

Volume 1

Anantha Academy for Special Education (AASE) is excited to share its first Quarterly Newsletter!

The Birth of AASE

It was the cherished dream of Mrs. Sharmila Jois Vellal, Founder & Director of AASE, to establish a special needs school to help such children with both educational and non- educational development. Her Vision of providing an inclusive learning environment took wings with the setting up of AASE. The journey from the founding of our school last year to officially rolling out our academic year in the month of June 2024 has been nothing short of terrific!

The Squad!

From (L to R): Brinda Kumar, Naveena Rao, Rohith Pradeep, Imitisangla Jamir, Sharmila Jois Vellal, Aarthi Nagvenkar, Abhigyan Kashyap, Ananya Vijay.

Meet Team Anantha

A bunch of talented, hardworking and dedicated individuals.

UPCOMING EVENTS

- August : Friendship day, Raksha Bandhan, Independence day, Janmashtami
- OUTREACH Program : We have tied up with Teach for India to offer free remedial classes to children from Bright School. Student identification is in progress.

SWEET MEMORIES

The Train of Events so far...

- Summer Camp, May 2024:
The theme was Grandma's folklores, and the kids had a wonderful time with art, music and loads of creative fun!
- Back to School, June 1st week:
AASE welcomed its students with an open heart and the promise to work together towards a brighter future.
- Fashion Competition, July 2024: It was remarkable to see the students and teachers of our 3 school houses ramp walk in their best attires to the theme of Denim fusion.
- Parents day event, July 2024 : Paper mâché, tattoo corner, food counters, games: It was a day filled with laughter, fun and bonding over some yummy snacks made by our students.

Dear Parents,

I am absolutely thrilled to be sharing our first newsletter with you all. Thank you all for believing in us and supporting us during our first year.

Your consideration and constant feedback have helped us provide better service to your children. We assure you to work harder in providing quality program for you and your child. The journey so far has been very pleasant and memorable with most children settling in with the structure provided to them.

We wish to bring more experiences and skills that will make their time with us more fulfilling. We continue to hope for our journey together to be mutually beneficial, let us grow together.

Always a learner,

Sharmila Jois Vellal
Founder/ Director.
